

BATTLESHIP BLAST TOLL REACHES 48 MILLION DOLLAR COUP SCORED BY BANDIT GANG

THUGS RIFLE ALL - MAIL TRAIN NEAR CHICAGO ONE MEMBER IS SHOT

Chlorine Gas Used To Drive Victims From Three Cars—Holdup Men Escape With Federal Reserve Currency Shipments.

Chicago, June 13.—Every man of the crew of seventy who manned the last Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train which was held up last night and looted of mail the value of which may reach around a million and a half dollars, was taken into custody by federal operatives today for questioning. A. M. Germer, chief postoffice inspector in charge of investigation into the robbery, declared the robbery had been an "inside job."

Chicago, June 13.—Search enlisting 1,000 officers and special agents was afoot today for two automobile loads of bandits who scored a million-dollar coup near here last night.

The corps of bandits using chlorine gas to drive the victims from three cars of the all mail special train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road after it had sped 30 miles from Chicago on its way north and west, gathered between forty-fifty and fifty-two sacks containing federal reserve currency shipments in their smoothly organized task about midnight.

A single instance of bloodshed mistook him for a belligerent member gang's own members was shot through the head when his fellows mistook him for a belligerent member of the train crew. Blood marked the spot where he lay while his companions completed the robbery before loading him onto a car for the getaway. This pool of blood, a bottle of nitro-glycerin, several discarded masks and a quantity of dynamite left behind by the robbers, and the chance remark of leaders that he wanted a registered mail sack consigned to Roundup, Mont. "for my own purposes," were the clues from which officers worked today.

Seventy mail clerks, all armed were aboard the special train carrying eight mail cars and two express coaches but no effort at resistance was met by the bandits.

The train had been on its way scarcely more than an hour when a bandit who had ridden blind baggage from Chicago, crawled over the tender and warned the engineer to stop the train when the red signal flares were seen. After its stop the train was backed so that the cars containing the most valuable mail were at a grade crossing, where four cars of armed bandits were waiting.

The car halted across the roadway was the one containing federal reserve bond shipments from Milwaukee, Helena, Butte, Seattle and Spokane. Its clerks, Louis Phillips of Minneapolis, refused to open the doors but a chlorine gas bomb smashed against a grating window and the fumes drove him choking to the door. The stocky leader of the bandits put on a gas mask. He gave Phillips another.

"Help me find the pouches I want or I'll kill you," he directed pleasantly. The bandits forced the clerks to carry the pouches from three cars to the waiting automobiles.

SHIPPING BOARD ON OCEAN TO STAY

New York, June 13.—E. C. Plummer, vice president of the shipping board, announced that two new passenger vessels, with a tonnage of 22,000 each, will be built during the next year, will be built during the next year.

A singular fact pointed out today was that the only man mentioned by name in the six thousand word Republican platform are Harding, Coolidge and Dawes, the latter in connection with the recent reparations investigation. Commenting on the Republican ticket, Secretary of State Hughes said:

"I am delighted with the nomination of General Dawes. He is one of the best equipped executives in the country and with his well known achievements, patriotism, dynamic force and good sense, will bring great strength to the ticket."

Hughes' sentiments were echoed by many other Republican leaders, including Senator Borah, of Idaho and Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

General Dawes is well known in Washington where he served as the first director of the budget and much earlier as comptroller of the currency, a position which his brother, Henry M. Dawes, now holds. While the Republicans seized the opportunity for a brief rest before plunging into the maelstrom of the general campaign, the Democrats showed temporarily into the background, during the Cleveland convention, emerged into the political limelight today as plans were pushed for the Democratic convention, opening in New York on June 24.

With the Republican platform before them, Democratic leaders prepared to take advantage of whatever lapses or sidestepping they could find in that document to evolve their own campaign principles.

State to Purchase Coal.
Columbus, June 13.—The immediate purchase of all coal required by state institutions for next winter is urged by Governor Donahy in a letter sent John E. Harper, director of public welfare. If this is done, it will do much to relieve the situation among Ohio miners, the governor said. Each year the state uses in its institutions more than 150,000 tons of coal, and as all of them have ample storing room, the coal could be purchased and delivered any time after July 1, when funds for the next fiscal year are available.

American Defeats Britisher.
London, June 13.—Jim Barnes, former American open golf champion, defeated Arthur G. Havers, British open golf champion, 2 up and 1 to play, in the second round of the 1,000 guineas professional golf tournament, which Havers won last year.

G. O. P. LEADERS TURN TOWARD CAMPAIGN AS NOMINEES SELECTED

Coolidge And Dawes Ticket Of Solid Republican Conservatism Comes After Hectic Day At Cleveland Convention.

Cleveland, O., June 13.—Calvin Coolidge and General Charles G. Dawes.

Behind this ticket solid Republican conservatism, organization leaders got together in Cleveland today and laid the groundwork for the long and arduous campaign that will carry through the heat of summer and into the early frosts of November.

It will be a hectic campaign. That much is assured, irrespective of who the Democrats nominate at New York two weeks hence. Dawes is one of the most picturesque men in public life.

And in the west there looms the disturbing shadow of Senator Robert M. LaFollette, whose followers here in Cleveland demonstrated their complete lack of sympathy with the whole G. O. P. structure.

General Dawes probably will carry the brunt of the Republican attack in the west. President Coolidge has already given Republican leaders to understand that he will conduct a quiet campaign, so far as he personally is concerned, and if there is to be any stumping of the insurgent West it will have to be done by others. He plans to stay in Washington, radio his words from the White House and only occasionally strike out with the weapon of a personal appearance before an audience.

CHARLES G. DAWES

EAST LIVERPOOL MAN IS SEEKING OHIO NOMINATION

Columbus, June 13.—That Governor Donahy will have opposition in the primary for the Democratic nomination for governor was revealed when James O. B. Beatty of East Liverpool filed his declaration of candidacy for the nomination.

Beatty is a pottery worker and was an independent candidate for mayor of East Liverpool last year. He ran for mayor on an anti-liquor ticket.

Joseph Seiber of Akron filed his declaration, the sixth candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. Evans E. Watkins of Cleveland, filed his declaration for lieutenant governor. He is the twelfth candidate for that office on the Republican ticket.

Judge Reynolds L. Kinkade of Toledo filed his candidacy for nomination as judge of the supreme court on the Republican ticket. He is now judge of the court of appeals of the Sixth district.

Wesley L. Grills, city solicitor of Lorain, filed his declaration of candidacy for attorney general on the Republican ticket. This makes two opponents to Attorney General Crabbe, who is seeking the nomination.

Howard C. Black of Plain City filed as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor. Black was a candidate two years ago, finishing third in a field of five.

Dan E. Butler of Toledo filed for the Democratic nomination for state auditor. He said to have the support of a large part of the state organization.

NIGHT RIDERS ARE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR A SHOOTING

Lexington, Ky., June 13.—A special court of inquiry convened at Glasgow to investigate the shooting by alleged night riders of Mrs. Albert Kidd, who lives near Center, in Metcalfe county, is reported that night riders halted in front of the dwelling and called for Mr. Kidd. Mrs. Kidd appeared at the door and was shot instantly. It also was reported Mrs. Kidd was wounded when she attempted to close the kitchen door. Neither version has been confirmed. Her wounds resulted from shotgun fire, a physician said.

Appearances of night riders in Metcalfe county have been attributed to various causes, local difficulties usually being given as a likely cause. In some instances verbal or written warnings have been left with the victims to join a tobacco pool within 24 hours lest he not be permitted to raise a crop this year.

THREE OFFICERS AND 45 ENLISTED MEN ON BOARD U. S. S. MISSISSIPPI KILLED

Series Of Blasts In Pacific Waters Rocks Warship—More Than Two Score Gunners Caught Like Rats In Trap.

San Pedro, June 13.—The 48 blue jackets killed yesterday in a big turret on the U. S. S. Mississippi met their deaths by asphyxiation.

This was the statement today by naval authorities aiding in the investigation of the disaster.

Almost instant death for the majority was caused by gases vomiting from the breach of a 14 inch gun into the lethal chamber of the turret, where the men were trapped, the officers asserted.

The bodies were burned and mutilated after death, they said.

San Pedro, Calif., June 13.—The 48 men who lost their lives in an explosion late yesterday on the United States battleship Mississippi, which claimed the greatest toll in the peace time history of the American navy, excepting the sinking of the Maine, went to their deaths sealed in an iron room, it was disclosed here today.

An inspection of the "death turret" today revealed the men were unable to escape because of the intense heat of the fire after the blast had welded the trapdoor on the floor of the turret, leaving them trapped behind thirteen inch walls of white hot steel.

Five officers of the Pacific fleet entered the death chamber today and found the men did not have a chance for their lives.

From the preliminary examination of the turret officers, many lives would have been saved if the tiny trap door had not melted.

The door opened upward into a chamber.

When a hole was cut in the turret to remove the bodies, more than 20 human corpses were found on top of the door.

On top of the trapdoor were found the extended hands of gunners—with bare fingers they had tried to claw their way from the lethal vault. The body of Lieutenant Thomas E. Zellars of Long Beach, California, was the first removed from the turret. It was found at the water emergency cock of the turret's after end.

Officers of the fleet said Zellars' last act, turning on the water, saved the Mississippi from destruction. The lever on which his hand rested in death, controlled the doors leading to the powder magazine, as well as the water. Zellars' last act pulling the water magazine doors shut, saved the lives of a thousand on the man of war. He was the hero of the sea tragedy.

Los Angeles, June 13.—The toll in the series of blasts on the battleship Mississippi, rocked yesterday by a terrific explosion of mysterious origin stood today at three officers and forty-five enlisted men known to be dead, ten others believed fatally hurt and fifty others injured.

Caught like rats in a trap, more than two score gunners and officers were victims of one of the worst peacetime tragedies in the history of the U. S. Navy.

As the ship was limping toward port, a second blast in the gun turret rocked the battered craft, which unloaded its injured on the hospital ship Mercy, then put to sea again to guard against injury to other shipping by other possible explosions.

The blast, accompanied by a roar of crimson fire and black smoke, ignited a powder bag of two guns in the second turret of the giant man of war. The gunners, many of them stripped to the waist, were thrown in a tangle of flying iron rods, heavy bolts and wreckage of the iron clad turret.

The Mississippi, accompanied by the Tennessee, Idaho and California, comprising a battle division under command of Rear Admiral William V. Pratt, was engaged in firing on targets towed by the California when the explosion occurred off San Clemente Island, more than twenty-five miles at sea.

While a dozen gunners in the ammunition room heroically turned water from emergency cocks onto a mass of unexploded powder near the flames which followed the explosion, the Mississippi was able to turn about and make this harbor under its own power.

As she neared the harbor, a second explosion shook surrounding buildings.

A projectile had been placed by the dead gunners. It hurtled past the outgoing steaming Yale, crowded with passengers, missing the vessel by only a few yards. The unexploded projectile, a menace to navigation, had not been recovered today.

Eye witnesses of the sea tragedy, told a harrowing story of the fearful blasting.

Ensign H. D. Smith was first to reach the flaming turret. He was driven back time after time but finally succeeded in bringing a hose to the debris.

Rescuers then began bringing out the bodies of their comrades.

"Every hole and cranny in the turret belched fire and poison gas," said one of the rescued men. "While the salvoes, the disabled boat hastily displayed distress signals. Even we men on deck did not know what had happened at first. The impact of the explosion was terrible, then we saw the damaged turret, half hidden in black clouds of smoke and fire."

"The scenes that followed were awful. It was a panic as the pitiful cries of the dying and hurt reached us. Officers took swift charge and ordered us to fight the fire and assist in taking out the bodies."

Many of the injured, it was learned today, were severely burned and chances for recovery are slight. Because some of the gunners were without clothes, the burning powder found their bodies quickly and seared them as they clambered out of the death pit to safety.

Among those saved is Ensign J. J. Levisour. He leaped from the shell deck, saving his life. He was badly bruised in his dive for life out of the mass of flames and smoke, but none of his injuries is believed serious.

An investigation of the accident will be ordered.

Vice Admiral Wiley, commanding the battleship division, will issue an official statement regarding the tragedy today.

Washington, June 13.—President Coolidge, as commander in chief, today ordered the navy department to conduct a rigid and exhaustive investigation to fix responsibility for the terrific explosion yesterday aboard the battleship Mississippi, which cost the lives of three officers and forty-five enlisted men and resulted in serious injuries to many others.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, who was at Cleveland, is rushing back to Washington to take personal charge of the investigation and to summon a special board of officers to convene at Los Angeles to pursue the inquiry.

DOUMERGUE NOW IS PRESIDENT OF FRENCH REPUBLIC

Paris, June 13.—President Gaston Doumergue of the French senate, this afternoon was elected president of the French Republic, in succession to Alexandre Millerand, resigned.

The left bloc's favorite candidate, President Paul Painleve, of the chamber of deputies, was not able to muster the necessary majority of votes in the national assembly to elect.

President Doumergue will serve until September 23.

NEW TYPE OF AIR FLIGHT ATTEMPTED

Mitchell Field, N. Y., June 13.—Major William J. Hensley, Jr., and Lieutenant Elliott of Mitchell Field, who hopped off today in an attempted breakfast-to-dinner non-stop flight to Columbus, Nebraska, in a standard De Havilland army plane, remained in the air only ten minutes.

Fog and only a 600 foot "ceiling" forced the flyers down, they declared. They said they could not have crossed the mountain ranges in Pennsylvania.

Major Hensley was disappointed as he had planned having dinner with his parents in Columbus before seven tonight. He said another attempt will be made when better weather conditions prevail.

Routed With a Bomb.
Canton, O., June 13.—Unable to gain entrance to a room where a dice game was in progress, police hurled a gas bomb into the building. A score of players, who made a hurried and weeping exit from the building, were rounded up and arrested. The departure of the players was so noisy that the police found $40 in cash on the table.

DAWES NOT PROFANE MAN FAMILY NAME IS CAUSE FOR EXPRESSION

Cleveland, O., June 13.—General Charles G. Dawes, nominated as the running mate of President Calvin Coolidge late last night, is not a profane man, W. W. Mills banker, and delegate to the Republican convention told International News Service today.

"Hell and Mariah"—the general's favorite expression is not profanity—it's only the combination of two feminine names, a hold-over from Dawes' boyhood days.

Mills said that two of Dawes' sisters bore the named famous a few years ago, when the general was summoned before a probing committee to tell what he knew of the A. E. F.

The older brother as boys will, Mills continued, quickly taught the alliteration and Helen Mariah was a catch phrase in the Dawes household.

"Do you realize," asked Mills referring with pride to his nephew's achievement in formulating the Dawes reparations plan for the settlement of Europe's economic problems, "that the only living men mentioned in the platform head the party ticket—Coolidge and Dawes?"

General Dawes, Mills said, appreciated the great honor that came to him but was unwilling so long as there was a chance that former Governor Frank O. Lowden might accept, to do a thing to bring about his nomination.

"When his nomination was assured," Mills continued, "I called Charlie on the telephone at Marietta and told him what had happened. He was interested but not excited and began talking about family matters."

General Dawes was born in Marietta 59 years ago. He was graduated from the Marietta College and the Cincinnati College of Law. In 1887 he went to Lincoln, Nebraska and opened a law office, later leaving that city for Chicago, and deserting law practice for banking.

MAIL INSURANCE AND C. O. D. MAIL SERVICE EXTENDED

Mail insurance and C. O. D. service will be extended to cover third-class as well as fourth-class mail matter, effective July 1, the department at Washington advised Postmaster H. E. Rice, Thursday.

Heretofore provisions were made for these services to apply only to fourth-class matter. Articles included under third-class matter are prints, calendars, photographs, etc. Fourth-class is parcel post matter.

Notification was also made that automobile tires found in the mails without identification tags would be retained in the Dead Letter Division only thirty days instead of six months. The perishable nature of tires is given as reason for the change.

BUTLER NAMED G. O. P. NATIONAL COMMITTEE HEAD

Officers Are Elected Friday At Cleveland—Ohio Adams Out.

Cleveland, O., William M. Butler, of Massachusetts, personally selected by President Coolidge as his campaign manager, was elected chairman of the new Republican National Committee at its initial session today. Other officers elected for the direction of the campaign were:

Vice Chairman: Ralph William, Oregon; Charles D. Hilles, of New York and Mrs. Alvin T. Hert, of Kentucky.

Treasurer: William V. Hodges, of Denver.

Secretary: Roy O. West, of Chicago. The new officers represent a complete in committee personnel. Butler succeeds John T. Adams, of Iowa, West succeeds George B. Lockwood, of Indiana and Hodges replaces Fred W. Upham, of Illinois, who had held the treasurers' post for many years.

The election of Hodges, came as a surprise, as W. L. Mellon, of Pittsburgh, a nephew of A. W. Mellon, had been slated for the post. It is understood that Mellon declined the appointment. Hodges was known but to few members of the committee. He is a lawyer by profession and was formerly president of the civic and commercial association of Denver.

The committee also decided this morning to seat Robert H. Tod as committeeman from Porto Rico. His claim has been contested by two Porto Rican delegates to the convention.

GAME CLAIMED

Now comes Dr. G. W. Kuhn, pitcher for the "never washers," a baseball team of the Wednesday Afternoon Club, and admits his team was defeated in one game Wednesday afternoon by Harold Owens' All Stars, but declares the "never washers" won the second game 27 to 7.

The "never washers" allege they hammered the offerings of J. T. Hibbert for thirty-seven hits in the second game, and that women attending the picnic had to run for the batters when they became fatigued from scoring runs. They hold further that the judgment of Frank L. Johnson, the umpire, was excellent in the second game even though a bit erratic in the opening contest.

The statement that Captain Harold Owens of the All Stars caught only one ball during the two games is submitted on its merits.

BOY IS DROWNED WADING IN MIAMI RIVER THURSDAY

Dayton, June 13.—Cecil Hawkins, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hawkins, 204 Bruin Street, was drowned Thursday afternoon, while wading with three boy friends in the back waters of the big Miami River, near the N. C. R. lumber yards.

Acting upon a suggestion from one of his friends, the Hawkins boy attempted to wade across the stream. He is said to have stepped in a hole and gone under.

Upon arrival of the police, the body was finally recovered and an attempt was made to revive the boy with a pulmotor.

The fact that she had just returned from a serious operation together with the shock following the news of the boy's death, contributed to the collapse of Mrs. Hawkins, mother of the drowned boy. Her condition is said to be critical.

RECENT COLLEGE

NOVEL SCORED

Professor Mary E. Barnicle, of Antioch College, delivered a lecture on "The Plastic Age," a novel of college life, before the members of the Old Barn Club, in Dayton, Thursday afternoon. The lecture was the first of a series to be presented by Professor Barnicle, at the club.

The novel of Percy Marks, was characterized by Professor Barnicle, as harsh and naked in its treatment of college life, and utter lacking in idealism. She contended that it was realistic so far as it goes but paints only a portion of the picture of college life.

"In the book there is to be found no example of the type of young man who develops in character and intellectually while in college and who has aims of going forth as prophet into the world for its betterment," she declared. Although college students swear and use to some extent a jargon which is not English, Marks over emphasizes the college students' use of it, she said.

The plot, according to the speaker, has little grip. However, she concluded, "The Plastic Age" should not be ignored by the reading public. Boys should read it to learn what elements of college life to avoid.

MODISH MITZI—News From The Honeymooners.

"Dear Mitzi," writes Adelaide, "I am so glad you insisted on my taking the red and black scarf with the black hat trimmed in red ribbon to match. They are much the nicest things I've seen on board." Harry is planning the clothes he will buy in London. How surprised he will be to learn that Adelaide intends going to Paris to buy clothes for herself. It is quite evident that they will stay in either one or the other of these two fashion centers for months and months.

ROBERT FRANKS ANTI HANGING PLEA. NOV.

By a strange twist of fate Robert Franks, 12-year-old kidnaped victim of the murderous desires of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb sons of Chicago millionaires, was captain of a debating team at the Harvard School which was declared victor in a debate in which he opposed capital punishment for murderers. Here is a facsimile of a portion of the notes made by the youth for whose own murder two other youths may die.

FESS' OPINION OF COOLIDGE

Hon. S. D. Fess, U. S. Senator from Ohio, delivered the following speech at the New England Coolidge Dinner, April 16 at Boston.

This situation at Washington accounts for the peculiar political maneuvers which have precipitated this campaign of slander in which the Senate has reached an alarmingly low level as a deliberative body. The remedy is not in the main on the floor of the Senate. It lies with the electorate which must pay the frightful cost of such condition.

In the midst of this orgy of slander, this spree of muckraking, this riot of vituperation and crimination where stalwart statesmen seem to have lost their former poise, where a self-respecting minority has abandoned a test of political theories for a try-out of mere vaudeville, to the disgust of Senators on both sides of the aisle, and to the amazement of the country at large, there looms one figure, the leader at the head of the Government, concerned over the trend of the forces of disintegration displayed in legislative circles, has uttered a timely caution, if not warning, to call back the Senate to its proper function of legislation. In the midst of the storm of abuse there he stands, unmoved by clamor, his courage determined by conscientious scruples of what is the just course to take.

Few are his words, decisive is his judgment. His comprehension of pending problems is broad, his vision clear and his action dauntless. His conception of public duty forestalls the employment of mere political expediency. While he highly prizes the honor of the great office which he adorns, he refuses to sacrifice his chances to serve the public by yielding to the pressure of party advantages against his judgement of proper official conduct. His political philosophy is well exemplified in his past official career. This is confirmed by his messages as President.

His direct and unequivocal method of attacking problems grips the public mind. His evident desire to do justice stimulates public confidence. His sense of fairness provokes support and disarms the forces of selfish and sordid interests from whatever source.

The simplicity of his early life wonderfully appeals to the average citizen of the Republic.

CAN THE LAW REACH THEM?

Today's Talks

END THE DAY HAPPY

I recently read the philosophy of George M. Cohan concerning his plays. He says: "Always leave 'em laughing when you say good-bye." No wonder people have to engage their tickets far in advance for any of Cohan's shows.

The search eternal is that for happiness.

And yet there is but one road to happiness—the one whereby you give happiness to someone else.

But if you try to get the happiness that belongs to someone else, the result is sure to be unhappiness. Happiness is within yourself and you have to give it away in order to get it back again.

Life is very hard at its best. Each of us has to dress up and present a brave front most of the time.

But the more we put into life the more wonderful it becomes.

Our lives are made up of days and each one must count. An unhappy day, in which little has been accomplished, is a day lost. Everything you do that is worth while and contributes to some useful end, accumulates for you.

All work is important. You should, therefore, not only work to keep busy out to prepare yourself for something more important.

Come to the end of your day happy—happy because you have done your best and tried to leave a little sunshine where only shadows were before.

Then you will sleep a happy sleep and arise on the morrow refreshed and glad because you are alive.

NEW FIRE TRUCKS HAVE ARRIVED AT YELLOW SPRINGS

New fire fighting apparatus, purchased March 6, by the Yellow Springs Village Council, arrived Thursday.

The fire truck embraces an International 2 1/2-ton engine. There is also a one-ton truck. Both are equipped with chemical tanks, ladders and full apparatus. They were the man in apparatus.

They were delivered by Columbus contractors, who offered one of the eleven bids considered by the council last March. The purchase price for both trucks with their equipment was $6,500.

A banquet, during which time the new trucks were inspected, was held Thursday evening at 5:30 in the basement of the Presbyterian Church, for the Yellow Springs firemen.

BROTHERHOOD OFFICIAL GIVES TAN LAC CREDIT FOR RESTORING HEALTH

Oldest Member Of B. R. T. South Of Ohio Keeps Medicine In His Family Medicine Chest.

E. WALTER TRIPPE

E. Walter Trippe, 324 Healey Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., legislative representative Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, and oldest member of the Brotherhood south of the Ohio River, lends his name to further the cause of Tanlac, the medicine that has proved of such great benefit to him.

Mr. Trippe was formerly freight and passenger conductor on the Seaboard, W. & A., Southern and A. & W. P. He numbers his railroad friends by the score and is also a popular fraternal order man. Mr. Trippe has also served as assistant collector internal revenue, Northern district of Georgia, and is now publisher and editor.

"I have not been without Tanlac in my medicine chest in 8 years," said Mr. Trippe, "but I have had two experiences with it that stand out especially in my history. Once when I came in from my run with my stomach all upset and my digestion just about wrecked, Tanlac proved effective and I began to swear by it. Again following an accident that kept me in bed for a long time and pulled me down to a mere shadow of myself, I turned to Tanlac and it built my weight right up and gave me back all the energy and strength I ever had."

"Not only has Tanlac helped me, but I know so many of the brother

trainmen who have benefitted by it that I often call Tanlac the railroad man's best friend."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

YOUTH STRUCK BY CAR SLIGHTLY HURT

Clarence Bottorff, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bottorff, of Trumbull Street, was slightly injured when struck by a machine belonging to a traveling salesman for the Green and Green Baking Company, of Dayton, on Bellbrook Avenue, Wednesday evening, at 6 o'clock.

The boy was crossing the street and did not notice the machine. The driver of the car was driving slowly but could not avoid the accident, it is said.

The boy received a deep cut over his left eye, that required two stitches by a physician and minor bruises.

The forty-fifth annual commencement of the Xenia Central High School took place this morning in the Opera House. The place was filled with friends and relatives of the graduates. The stage was banked on each side with potted plants and the class colors of green and gold were displayed in bunting. The Corona Choir furnished the music for the morning and credit must be given to Professor Maynard for their excellent singing. To Miss Elwell great credit is due for the splendid delivery of the graduates.

North King street was the scene of an unusual amount of excitement this morning, about 2:30 o'clock, when the barn on the property owned by Mrs. Sue Williams and occupied by Judge J. E. Hawes, was burned to the ground.

In response to a recent request from a reader for Chocolate Doughnuts, two Reader Friends have kindly sent me the following recipes:

"Mrs. C. M." and "Mabel" sent identical recipes: "Chocolate Doughnuts with Eggs: Two eggs, one tablespoon of melted butter, one cup of sweet milk, three-fourths of a cup of granulated sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, two tablespoons of melted chocolate, three cups of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder and one teaspoon of vanilla. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Beat the eggs and add the sugar to them, then also add the chocolate, butter, milk and vanilla. Stir in the sifted ingredients. Roll out about one-half inch thick, which will make a medium-thick dough. Cut with a doughnut cutter. Fry in deep, hot fat as any doughnuts. When cool sprinkle with powdered sugar. This recipe makes three dozen doughnuts."

"Mrs. C. M." also sent the following: "Chocolate Doughnuts without Eggs: Two tablespoons of butter melted, two-thirds of a cup of sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of vanilla, two and one-half ounces (or squares) of unsweetened chocolate melted, one cup of sweet milk, three cups of flour and three teaspoons of baking powder. Mix butter and sugar together, then add the salt, nutmeg, vanilla, and melted chocolate (cooled). Also add the milk and the flour sifted with the baking powder. Mix well and roll out on a slightly-floured board, about one-fourth inch thick. Cut with a doughnut cutter and fry to a light brown in deep fat, which is hot enough to brown a small piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain well and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

"Or, better yet, sugar the doughnuts as follows: Put six doughnuts into a large paper bag with a couple of tablespoons of powdered sugar; close top of bag and then shake well. When the doughnuts are well coated with the sugar, remove them and put six more into the bag, shaking as before and adding more powdered sugar as necessary. Save left-over sugar for next baking. This method will save lots of trouble and leaves no sugar-dust to clean up afterwards."

I want to thank these kind Reader Friends for sending us their recipes, which I am sure many housekeepers will use and value.

WOULD PREVENT MANY BUSINESS FAILURES

There probably would be fewer business failures if every man would analyze his own business prospects before jumping into business for himself.

In how many cases does the average man bother to investigate his own business thoroughly before starting? The percentage of failures is enough evidence to show that very few really analyze their prospects. Yet it is evident that in a highly competitive world, a man must have some sort of advantage to succeed.

There are probably only two real reasons for believing that a business can be successfully started. One is that you have superior salesmanship and therefore can give better service. This means that you have the personality to go out and beat the other men in that line, at their own game.

The second reason for starting a business is that you have some sort of natural advantage.

THIS MAN INTENDS TO KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE

"In May or June 1912, I sent to you and got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but then 4 bottles of May's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

LEGION URGES THE PROPER DISPLAY OF FLAG SATURDAY

Urging recognition of Saturday, June 14, as Flag Day, Foody Post.

American Legion, is issuing pamphlets containing rules for proper display of the national colors.

The effort to obtain proper observance of the flag display rules represents the part the Legion will take in observance of the day. The pamphlets are illustrated showing proper manner for carrying and displaying the colors and the proper salute when the flag is passing.

The American flag is one of the oldest flags in the world, older than that of either Great Britain or France. It was first authorized by Congress, June 14, 1777, and for this reason, this date is celebrated all through the states.

The flag is never hoisted between sunset or dark and sunrise or the following morning according to the pamphlet. The flag should be displayed on national and state holidays and on historic and special occasions. During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag, or when the flag is passing in parade or review, all persons should stand at attention, face the flag and salute. Those present in uniform should give the right hand salute. When not in uniform re-

FESS' OPINION OF COOLIDGE

Hon. S. D. Fess, U. S. Senator from Ohio, delivered the following speech at the New England Coolidge Dinner, April 16 at Boston.

This situation at Washington accounts for the peculiar political maneuvers which have precipitated this campaign of slander in which the Senate has reached an alarmingly low level as a deliberative body. The remedy is not in the main on the floor of the Senate. It lies with the electorate which must pay the frightful cost of such conduct.

In the midst of this orgy of slander, this spree of muckraking, this riot of vituperation and crimination where stalwart statesmen seem to have lost their former poise, where a self-respecting minority has abandoned a test of political theories for a try-out of mere vaudeville, to the disgust of Senators on both sides of the aisle, and to the amazement of the country at large, there looms one figure, the leader at the head of the Government, concerned over the trend of the forces of disintegration displayed in legislative circles, has uttered a timely caution, if not warning, to call back the Senate to its proper function of legislation. In the midst of the storm of abuse there he stands, unmoved by clamor, his courage determined by conscientious scruples of what is the just course to take.

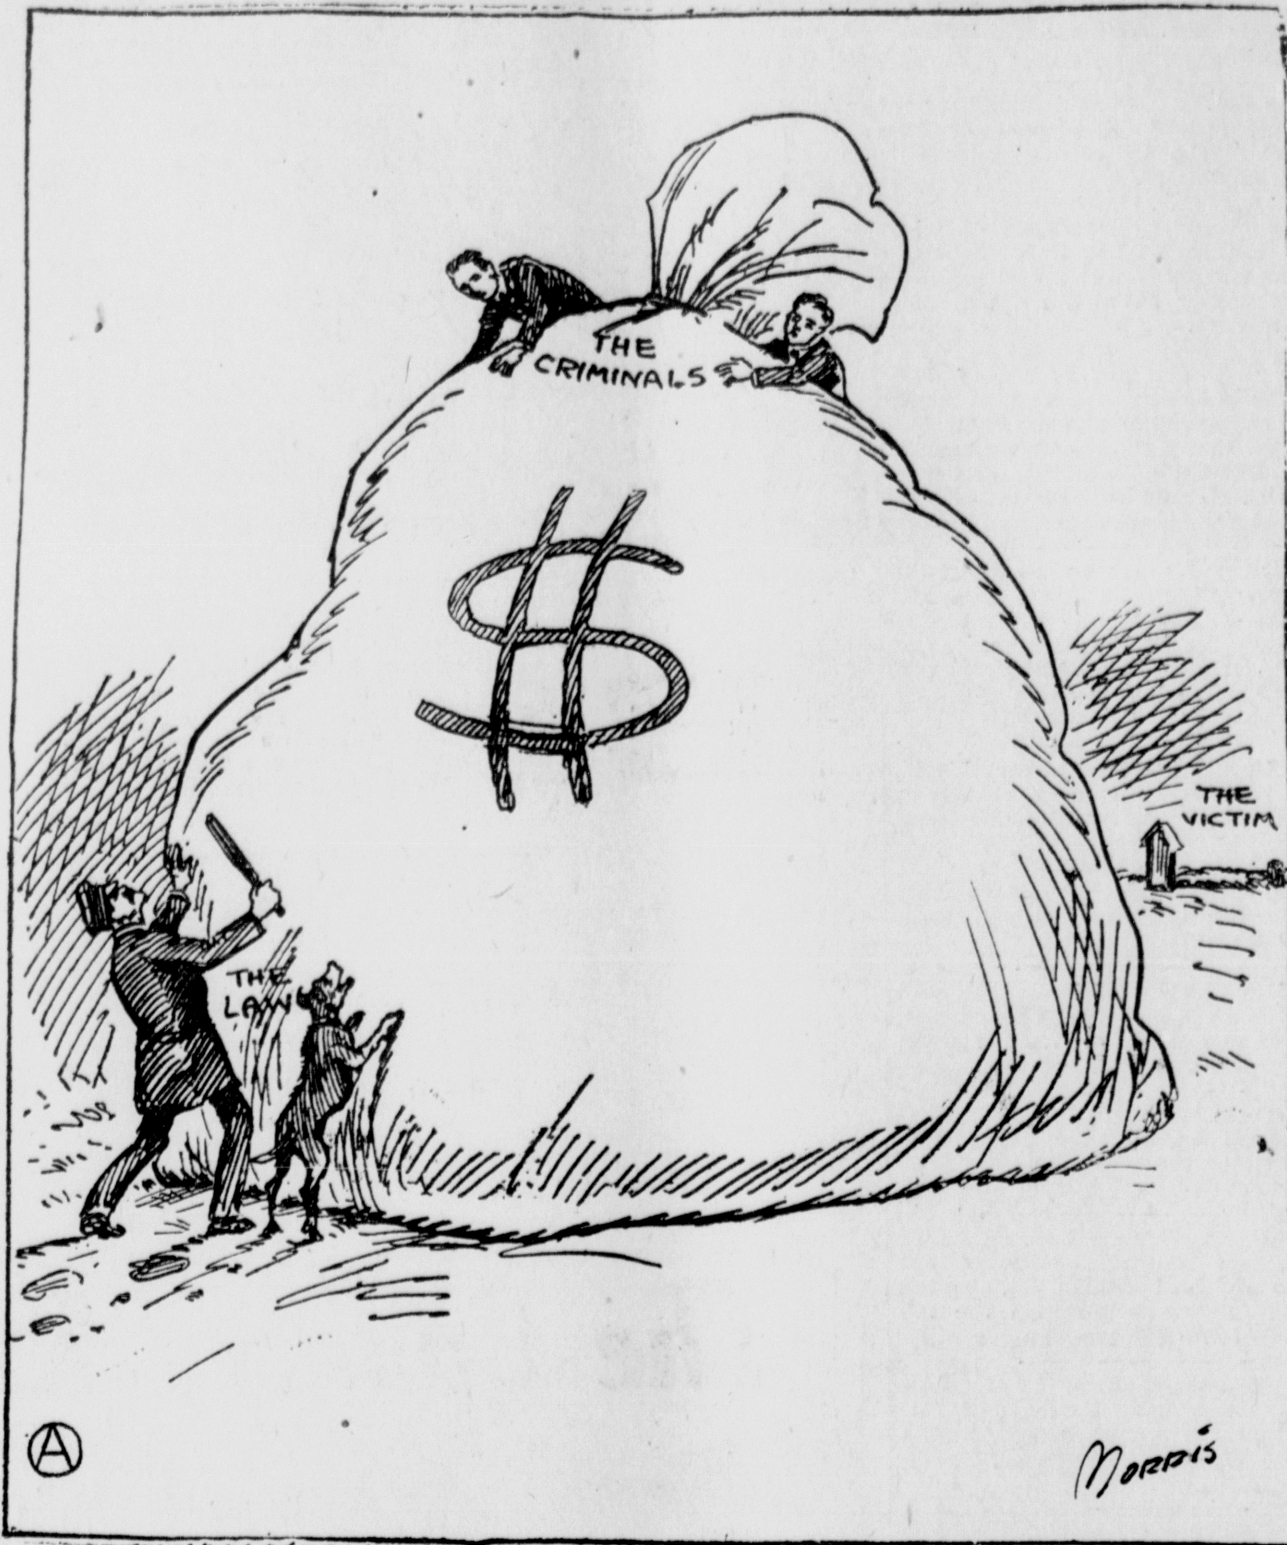

Few are his words, decisive is his judgment. His comprehension of pending problems is broad, his vision clear and his action dauntless. His conception of public duty forestalls the employment of mere political expediency. While he highly prizes the honor of the great office which he adorns, he refuses to sacrifice his chances to serve the public by yielding to the pressure of party advantages against his judgement of proper official conduct.

His political philosophy is well exemplified in his past official career. This is confirmed by his messages as President.

His direct and unequivocal method of attacking problems grips the public mind. His evident desire to do justice stimulates public confidence. His sense of fairness provokes support and disarms the forces of selfish and sordid interests from whatever source.

The simplicity of his early life wonderfully appeals to the average citizen of the Republic.

CAN THE LAW REACH THEM?

1904-Twenty Years Ago-1924

The forty-ninth annual commencement of the Xenia Central High School took place this morning in the Opera House. The place was filled with friends and relatives of the graduates. The stage was banked on each side with potted plants and the class colors of green and gold were displayed in bunting. The Corona Choir furnished the music for the morning and credit must be given to Professor Maynard for their excellent singing. To Miss Elwell great credit is due for the splendid delivery of the graduates. North King street was the scene of an unusual amount of excitement this morning, about 2:30 o'clock, when the barn on the property owned by Mrs. Sue Williams and occupied by Judge J. E. Hawes, was burned to the ground.

Today's Talks

END THE DAY HAPPY

I recently read the philosophy of George M. Cohan concerning his plays. He says: "Always leave 'em laughing when you say good-bye." No wonder people have to engage their tickets far in advance for any of Cohan's shows.

The search eternal is that for happiness. And yet there is but one road to happiness—the one whereby you give happiness to someone else.

But if you try to get the happiness that belongs to someone else, the result is sure to be unhappiness. Happiness is within yourself and you have to give it away in order to get it back again.

Life is very hard at its best. Each of us has to dress up and present a brave front most of the time.

But the more we put into life the more wonderful it becomes.

Our lives are made up of days and each one must count. An unhappy day, in which little has been accomplished, is a day lost. Everything you do that is worth while and contributes to some useful end, accumulates for you.

All work is important. You should, therefore, not only work to keep busy but to prepare yourself for something more important. Come to the end of your day happy—happy because you have done your best and tried to leave a little sunshine where only shadows were before. Then you will sleep a happy sleep and arise on the morrow refreshed and glad because you are alive.

NEW FIRE TRUCKS HAVE ARRIVED AT YELLOW SPRINGS

New fire fighting apparatus, purchased March 6, by the Yellow Springs Village Council, arrived Thursday.

The fire truck embraces an International 2 1/2-ton engine. There is also a one-ton truck. Both are equipped with chemical tanks, ladders and full apparatus. They were the man in apparatus.

They were delivered by Columbus contractors, who offered one of the eleven bids considered by the council last March. The purchase price for both trucks with their equipment was $6,500.

A banquet, during which time the new trucks were inspected, was held Thursday evening at 5:30 in the basement of the Presbyterian Church, for the Yellow Springs firemen.

BROTHERHOOD OFFICIAL GIVES TAN LAC CREDIT FOR RESTORING HEALTH

Oldest Member Of B. R. T. South Of Ohio Keeps Medicine In His Family Medicine Chest.

E. Walter Trippe, 324 Healey Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., legislative representative, Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, and oldest member of the Brotherhood south of the Ohio River, lends his name to further the cause of Tanlac, the medicine that has proved of such great benefit to him.

Mr. Trippe was formerly freight and passenger conductor on the Seaboard, W. & A., Southern and A. & W. P. He numbers his railroad friends by the score and is also a popular fraternal order man. Mr. Trippe has also served as assistant collector, internal revenue, Northern district of Georgia, and is now publisher and editor.

"I have not been without Tanlac in my medicine chest in 8 years," said Mr. Trippe, "but I have had two experiences with it that stand out especially in my history. Once when I came in from my run with my stomach all upset and my digestion just about wrecked, Tanlac proved effective and I began to swear by it. Again following an accident that kept me in bed for a long time and pulled me down to a mere shadow of myself, I turned to Tanlac and it built my weight right up and gave me back all the energy and strength I ever had.

"Not only has Tanlac helped me, but I know so many of the brother

trainmen who have benefitted by it that I often call Tanlac the railroad man's best friend."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

THE TOILER
What is there to the task that holds me fast,
And where's the beauty in so bleak a place?

What do I serve and try to find at last?
Merely the magic of a little face.

I come unbidden to this dust and gloom,
There is no law can bind me to the wheel,
I could desert and go where roses bloom,
Yet she shall smile and bless my evening meal.

The tramp has tried it. He has turned away
From all that men deem dutiful and right,
Has scorned the irksome burdens of the day,
And yet no loved one welcomes him at night.

No little hands reach upward to his face,
No woman smiles to see him at the door;
His drab appearance tells his own disgrace,
He has his freedom, but not one thing more.

Day after day I see them growing strong,
For me at night I know they watch and wait,
And so I stand and do this all day long,
Glad for the love which keeps me going straight.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

There probably would be fewer business failures if every man would analyze his own business prospects before jumping into business for himself.

In how many cases does the average man bother to investigate his own business thoroughly before starting in? The percentage of failures is enough evidence to show that very few really analyze their prospects. Yet it is evident that in a highly competitive world, a man must have some sort of advantage to succeed.

There are probably only two real reasons for believing that a business can be successfully started. One is that you have superior salesmanship and therefore can give better service. This means that you have the personality to go out and beat the other men in that line, at their own game.

The second reason for starting a business is that you have some sort of natural advantage.

THIS MAN INTENDS TO KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE

"In May or June 1913, I sent to you and got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but these 4 bottles of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

In response to a recent request from a reader for Chocolate Doughnuts, two Readers have kindly sent me the following recipes:

"Mrs. C. M." and "Mabel" sent identical recipes: "Chocolate Doughnuts with Eggs: Two eggs, one tablespoon of melted butter, one cup of sweet milk, three-fourths of a cup of granulated sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, two tablespoons of melted chocolate, three cups of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder and one teaspoon of vanilla. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Beat the eggs and add the sugar to them, then also add the chocolate, butter, milk and vanilla. Stir in the sifted dry ingredients. Roll out about one-half inch lents, which will make a medium-thick thick and cut with a doughnut cutter. Fry in deep, hot fat as any doughnuts. When cool sprinkle with powdered sugar. This recipe makes three dozen doughnuts."

"Mrs. C. M." also sent the following: "Chocolate Doughnuts without Eggs: Two tablespoons of butter melted, two-thirds of a cup of sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of vanilla, two and one-half ounces (or squares) of unsweetened chocolate melted, one cup of sweet milk, three cups of flour and three teaspoons of baking powder. Mix butter and sugar together, then add the salt, nutmeg, vanilla, and melted chocolate (cooled). Also add the milk and the flour sifted with the baking powder. Mix well and roll out on a slightly-floured bread board, about one-fourth inch thick. Cut with a doughnut cutter and fry to a light brown in deep fat, which is hot enough to brown a small piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain well and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

"Or, better yet, sugar the doughnuts as follows: Put six doughnuts into a large paper bag with a couple of tablespoons of powdered sugar; close top of bag and then shake well. When the doughnuts are well coated with the sugar, remove them and put six more into the bag, shaking as before and adding more powdered sugar as necessary. Save left-over sugar for next baking. This method will save lots of trouble and leaves no sugar-dust to clean up afterwards."

I want to thank these kind Reader Friends for sending us their recipes, which I am sure many housekeepers will use and value.

LEGION URGES THE PROPER DISPLAY OF FLAG SATURDAY

Urging recognition of Saturday, June 14, as Flag Day, Foody Post.

American Legion, is issuing pamphlets containing rules for proper display of the national colors.

The effort to obtain proper observance of the flag display rules represents the part the Legion will take in observance of the day. The pamphlets are illustrated showing proper manner for carrying and displaying the colors and the proper salute when the flag is passing.

The American flag is one of the oldest flags in the world, older than that of either Great Britain or France. It was first authorized by Congress, June 14, 1777, and for this reason, this date is celebrated all through the states.

The flag is never hoisted between sunset or dark and sunrise or the following morning according to the pamphlet. The flag should be displayed on national and state holidays and on historic and special occasions. During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag, or when the flag is passing in parade or review, all persons should stand at attention, face the flag and salute. Those present in uniform should give the right hand salute. When not in uniform re-

WILMINGTON MAY DROP FAST TIME

Wilmington city council will be asked to reverse its action of some time ago voting Eastern standard time permanently for that city.

The new time went into effect last Saturday. Wednesday, D. F. McCoy, picture theater owner, started circulation of a petition asking council to reconsider and rescind its action.

Fifty signatures were affixed to the paper within an hour. The council action makes the new time effective permanently and citizens are divided on approval and disapproval.

BRAND TO SEEK ELECTION AGAIN

Congressman Charles Brand, of Urbana, has filed his petition for reelection from the Seventh District with the Champaign County election board.

The petition will be forwarded to the counties in the district. It was signed by Lawrence Laybourne, of Springfield; H. W. Houston, and C. S. Ireland, Urbana; Grand Neer, Pleasant Twp., Clark County; Olive V. Gregory and C. F. Harrison, Springfield.

PEARL HUNTING SPORT AT PIQUA

Pearl hunting has been introduced as an inland sport at Piqua, following the breaking of the hydraulic carrying the city's water supply following recent storms.

Freshwater pearls are being found in thousands of large shells discovered in the mud and sediment of the Swift Run Lake bottom as a result of the water escaping. One hundred found eight pearls, while one large pearl found was valued at $50. Others range from a few dollars to $10 in value.

Captain Rostrom is the heroic officer who drove the liner Carpathia through iceberg-imperiled seas to rescue the survivors of the Titanic when the latter struck a berg and sank.

FISH ARE WASHED INLAND BY FLOOD

Carp, washed out of their usual haunts by flood waters, were found in quantities on the Kelly farm, between Urbana and Kingscreek, after the high water subsided.

An overflowing ditch covered the land, but the fish must have come from some other source. The carp were present by the hundreds, some of them two feet long.

In order to prove the yarn was not a fish story, Mr. Kelly brought specimens to Urbana.

Takes pills for years—finds first permanent relief in Kellogg's Bran

Have you found permanent relief from that terrible disease—constipation? The woman whose letter follows discovered—as thousands have discovered—that Kellogg's Bran succeeds when all else fails. This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:

"Gentlemen: I am so wonderfully happy over my discovery, I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, always resorting to pills or the like, never having any permanent relief until I heard of your Krumbled Bran. Every morning I take two tablespoonfuls before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you. Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.

Notice the wonderful nut-like flavor. This flavor is delicious—so different from ordinary, unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, made in Battle Creek, is served by America's leading hotels and clubs. Demand Kellogg's Bran. It will bring back your health. Start eating it today. Sold by all grocers.

G. O. P. OFFICIALS
TURN ATTENTION TO THE CAMPAIGN

conflicting orders, first on this man and then on that involving the political destinies of half a dozen men—Borah, of Idaho, Kenyon, of Iowa, Curtis of Kansas, Burton, of Ohio, Sanders of Indiana; Hoover of California—and they were heartily tired of orders.

Some of these they would not follow out and they appealed to President Coolidge at the White House by long distance telephone. They refused to take Kenyon of Iowa, even though Butler assured them that he was the White House choice. They had had the stage set for Borah upon Butler's order, and then Borah turned down the nomination. They themselves had set the stage for Curtis, only to have Butler turn out the lights on them. They had tried to set the stage again for Sanders, after talking with President Coolidge from a phone in the basement, but the delegates demurred. They had never heard of Sanders. Then came the dramatic climax of the convention getting out of hand and nominating Lowden.

Butler sought out Senator D. A. Reed of Pennsylvania, just as the chairman was rapping the final session into order.

"Hoover!" he said.

"It's too late," replied Reed.

He glanced to where Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury sat quietly and imperturbably at the head of the seventy-nine delegates from the Keystone state.

"It's too late," repeated Reed. "It's Daws—and on the first ballot."

Butler stalked back to the platform, his face reddening.

And it was Daws—on the first ballot.

Senator Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey, who headed the thirty-one delegates from that state, had previously refused to be swayed from Daws.

"The new Jersey delegation is tired of taking orders," was his tart message to the platform.

Daws got 682 1-2 votes according to the official count. Hoover received 234 1-2, the largest single unit of which was the thirty-nine delegates from Massachusetts. Even Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, showed in the background at this convention after nearly four decades of prominence, voted for Hoover.

Butler after sending a message of congratulation to Daws announced to-day that western campaign headquarters would be opened at Chicago immediately.

The national committee met this morning. President Coolidge has informed its members that he wants Butler elected chairman. There are dissenters—many of them—but whether the dissension will manifest itself in any open way appeared doubtful.

Cleveland, June 13.—Charles G. Dawes of Illinois was selected by the Republican national convention as Calvin Coolidge's running mate.

Dawes was nominated on the third ballot last evening after a spectacular contest. During the world war Dawes was the chief purchasing agent of the allies and recently served as reparations expert.

The following candidates were placed in nomination for vice president and voted for on the first ballot: Federal Judge William S. Kenyon of Iowa, ex-Governor Lowden of Illinois, Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, Charles G. Dawes of Illinois, Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, William P. Jackson, national committeeman of Maryland; Governor Arthur M. Hyde of Missouri, Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, of Utah.

Votes were also cast for the following, although their names were not formally presented to the convention: Congressman Theodore E. Burton of Ohio, Charles A. March of Minnesota, Congressman George S. Graham of Pennsylvania, J. Will Taylor of Tennessee, Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, James J. Harbord of Kansas, William Wrigley, Jr., of Pennsylvania.

The official figures on the first ballot were: Wrigley 1, Beveridge 2, Kenyon 172, Watson 79, Dawes 149, Curtis 85, Hyde 65, Jackson 23, Hines 22, Taylor 27, Lowden 223, March 28, Norris 35, Graham 81, Theodore E. Burton 139. Total vote cast 1,103; necessary to choice 555.

Stampede to Dawes.

After the second ballot had been tabulated, a switch to Lowden occurred and the Illinois man was nominated, but he declined to accept the honor. Burton of Ohio and Lowden ran a rather close race as the second ballot proceeded, and at the close of the formal roll call Lowden was leading, but not with enough for a nomination. Then the delegations began to switch, sending Lowden far into the lead. Lowden's letter refusing to accept then was read and a third ballot ordered, on which there was a stampede to Dawes.

On the second ballot the Ohio delegation voted as follows: Burton 49, Watson 1, Hines 1.

Judge Kenyon of Iowa was placed in nomination by Hanford MacNider of the American Legion. In the afternoon the word was passed that the administration men desired the nomination of Theodore E. Burton of Ohio and in the voting which followed the supporters of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois ran away with the nomination for their man, only to have him decline it. The nomination of Dawes came as the climax.

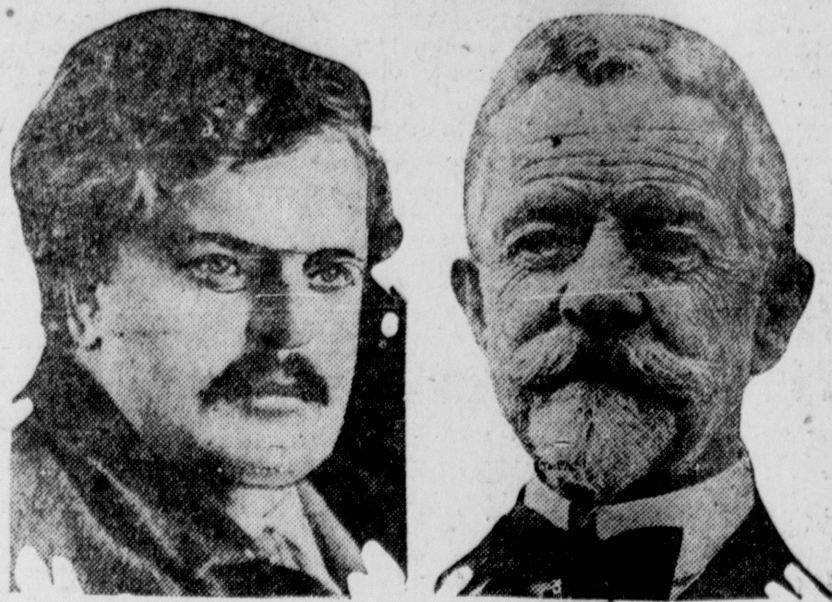

In a telegram to Permanent Chairman Mondell, Mr. Lowden said: "I am deeply grateful for the action of the convention. However, I have said a thousand times, I think, that I would decline if nominated, and I must keep my self-respect. I shall do what I can for Republican success as a private citizen, but I can not accept a place on the ticket." Lowden said he previously had written the convention and told them he would not accept.

GIRLS! USE LEMON TO WHITEN SKIN

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart-pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It cannot be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

THEY FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

When the steam roller of William M. Butler, wealthy Massachusetts manufacturer, who is directing President Coolidge's campaign for reelection, flattened out Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator and prominent in Republican conventions many years, he did not even murmur, thereby proving he could be a gentleman under all circumstances.

Mrs. Frances Fenton Bernard, formerly educational secretary of the American Association of University Women, is new dean of women at Smith College.

Francesco Nitti, exponent of peace and liberalism and former Premier of Italy, is an exile in Switzerland, because he opposes the high-handed rule of Premier Mussolini and his Fascists.

Gilbert K. Chesterton, peaceful purveyor of platitudinous paradoxes, is ready to go to war with the United States if visiting Americans don't stop trying to make Britons supplant the heavy English breakfast with the lighter Yankee style.

SAY CALUMET
The Economy BAKING POWDER
it means the BEST

The word Calumet means more than merely Baking Powder—it stands for dependability—purity and economy. It is the emblem of the highest quality leavener.

If it were possible for you to forget the name—to just ask for "the Best," in most cases the grocer would give you Calumet.

Experiments are expensive—especially on bake-day. To use leaveners simply because they cost a trifle less than Calumet is to invite failure. It generally means ruined bakings—the loss of time and expensive ingredients such as flour, sugar, eggs, etc.

Don't take chances with unreliable brands of Baking Powder—Try Calumet once—use it always.

RUBE HALL IS GOING GREAT

"Rube" Hall, local baseball pitcher, is continuing to make good this season pitching for the Tamaqua team in the Anthracite League in Pennsylvania.

Hall has won five games and lost two this season he informs R. C. Hayward in a letter here, and the league includes a number of high class ball players who formerly pitched in the big circuits.

Hall blanked Mt. Carmel with three hits recently, his team winning 5 to 0. George Whitted, former big leaguer, who managed Toledo last season, played first base for Mt. Carmel—but was blanked by Hall every trip to the plate. Morissette, who pitched for Toledo three seasons, opposed the local pitcher on the mound. Warner, of Dayton, played third base for Mt. Carmel and Donnelly center fielder for Mt. Carmel, has just jumped the Toledo club.

WARNS AGAINST CIVIL SERVICE COACHING SCHOOLS

Dayton, June 13—Henry W. Pleasant, secretary of the Dayton civil service board, urges extreme caution regarding dealings with civil service coaching schools, that profess to guarantee, by means of "inside" information, governmental positions to pupils. These schools, Mr. Pleasant said, are not unlike "detective schools."

Neither the civil service commission nor any branch of the government, is connected in any way with a school of this kind, and the commission headquarters or its branches, is able to give, without cost, any information such a school might advance, he said.

AUTO CLUB URGES TOURIST CAMP

Why not a tourist camp for Xenia? asks C. H. Little, membership director of the Greene County Automobile Club.

Many surrounding cities such as Piqua, Washington C. H., Dayton and others who are not any better situated than Xenia are provided with tourists camps, according to Mr. Little.

Mr. Little thinks the Fairgrounds, if obtainable, would make an ideal site for such a camp, and the Greene County Automobile Club has agreed to lend its support to sponsor a camp of this kind.

Health Hints by the Father of Physical Culture

The day has gone by when it was considered that frailty, either in a physical sense or in its reference to character, was the essential quality of womanhood. We know now that the designation of the "weaker sex," as applied to women, was an unpardonable libel against the sex, which there is good reason to believe is the more vital and enduring of the two. We know now that the apparent and superficial muscular weakness of women has been the result of artificial conditions which have been forced upon her, and the old conception of her was a result of the general misunderstanding of this fact. We know now that when placed in a natural environment, with the possibility of full development, woman is no less strong and enduring than man, a fact which has been amply proved by the physical stamina of women in various savage tribes where conditions have favored something like equality of development.

At the present time the athletic girl is fast becoming the ideal, and the world generally is gaining a more wholesome conception of the meaning of perfect womanhood. Both men and women are learning that the subtle charm of womanhood is the result of the superb physical magnetism of robust health, and that without this vitality this physical basis of true womanhood no woman can be more than half her real self. Furthermore, women are coming to realize that exquisite personal beauty is almost entirely a matter of health and development. Beauty is the expression of a vigorous and harmonious condition of the entire body, of internal cleanliness and wholesomeness, all of which are absolutely inconsistent with a condition of weakness or the physical inactivity which is responsible for such weakness. Pure blood and good circulation are impossible under conditions of muscular stagnation, involving also a lack of tone and the sluggish action of the functional organs. The beauty lines of any part of the body depend upon the muscular efficiency of that part.

BRINGING UP FATHER

LOVE-OR FAME?

by
VIOLET DARE
Author of "The Half-Time Wife"

The story thus far: DOROTHY LANE, who wants to go into the movies, receives a letter from PERSIS GRANT, an old friend living in New York. Persis knows a motion picture producer, and Dorothy goes to visit her, hoping to get a chance to act in pictures.

IV—A SIGNIFICANT MEETING

TWO men were standing near the casting department talking, and pretty soon one of them turned around and looked at me, not exactly pityingly, but as if he thought "My heavens, one more!" He looked awfully nice, too—sort of like one of the back home, except that he was more—well, dashing, and really better looking. I wondered if he was an actor.

Then he turned back to the other man and said, "Well, that's all there is to it then. They're all congressmen, and they're to be shown the studio and given all the arguments against censorship. You know what you're to do. See that I have a 'still' man when I want him—we ought to get some good stuff for the papers. And get around and tell all the stars who are working, so that they'll be on the floor when this delegation turns up. I'll take them over the whole studio the first thing—you wait for me down on that big restaurant set, and—here they come!" And he rushed out of the front door just as a line of automobiles drove up and a lot of men got out.

"Visiting Congressmen," announced the man in charge of the office to nobody in particular. "That young fellow?" in answer to a woman who sat near me. "Oh, that's Lawrence French; he has charge of the publicity here at the studio."

It seemed to me that he was awfully young for such a position, and I wondered, too, why anybody as good looking as he was wouldn't want to act. But just then the man in charge came over to me and said, "Mr. Hunt will see you now." And I followed him through a side door with my heart just hammering.

Mr. Hunt smiled so pleasantly when I went into his office; I suppose he was used to unsophisticated girls who were frightened to death because the opportunity they'd always wanted had finally arrived.

"Want to get into pictures?" he asked as I swallowed hard and tried to tell him why I'd come. "All right—got any photographs?"

I showed him my best ones—the ones in an evening gown, and the big head, and the smiling one that everybody liked best. He nodded and said "Good!" when he looked at the last one, and then asked if I had any profiles.

"You photograph well," he said at last. "Your face is wide at the eyes; that's a very good point, because you won't show fatigues quickly and your face won't change much if you get fatter or thinner. Had any experience?"

I hadn't, of course, except in some amateur theatricals back home. He wanted to know if I could dance and swim and do things like that, and I said I could—riding was the only thing of that kind that I'd never done.

"Well, I'll tell you," he began, turning to his desk and leafing over the pages of a huge book that lay there. "You're a good young girl type, and you seem to have brains; that's really important, though outsiders don't seem to know it. You have some money, I suppose—enough to live on till you get started?"

I told him that I had three hundred dollars.

"Well, stay here in town till that's gone—and then, if you aren't earning enough to live on, you go straight back home. Oh, I know that I've just told you that you're a good type, and you'll probably succeed eventually. But it's a dog's life, child, and I'd rather see you in a good home than trying to get along in it."

He talked to me a lot more, but I told him that I was determined to be an actress and wouldn't go home till I was convinced that I never could succeed.

"All right—I'll give you a chance if I can," he said. "You register with my assistant, and I'll tuck you into one of our productions as an extra right away. You won't have anything to do, but you'll see what a studio's like and how one has to work before the camera."
